

An introduction to Paediatrics for Adult Critical Care nurses

Monday 26th February 2024 Time: 09:00 - 16:00

Location: NHS Blood Transfusion Centre, Capitol Way, Barnsley

Monday 4th March 2024 Time: 09:00 – 16:00

Location: St James Hospital, Leeds

Tuesday 9th April 2024 Time: 09:00 – 16:00

Location: Castle Hill Hospital, Cottingham, Hull

Learning Objectives

- ❖ Be able to identify the anatomical differences between children and adults.
- ❖ Be aware of the different equipment used for children and why it is needed.
- ❖ Practice calculations in paediatrics including fluids and medications.
- ❖ Be aware of relevant regional pathways and guidelines for children and where they can be found.

PROGRAMME

Introductions / general discussion / concerns

How children are different to adults - group work

Paediatric Ventilation & Sedation strategies

Airway & Breathing equipment & practice

- Tube taping & Intubation equipment
- Suctioning

Fluid Management

Drug Calculation practice

IV Infusions & Embrace drug chart

To book a place, please go to the Yorkshire and Humber PCCODN networks website or by scanning the QR code.

An Introduction to Paediatrics for Adult Critical Care Nurses

Yorkshire and Humber
Paediatric Critical Care
Operational Delivery Network

